TROPICÁLIA

PORTO BRASIL STONEWARE

The image features three ceramic plates with a detailed pattern of birds and foliage. The plates are arranged in a fan-like shape, with one plate in the foreground and two behind it. The pattern includes two birds perched on a branch, surrounded by green leaves and brown seed pods. The birds have blue, white, and grey plumage. The text 'LÍPSIA' is prominently displayed in a large, white, serif font, with 'COLLECTION' in a smaller, white, sans-serif font below it.

PORTO BRASIL STONEWARE

A top-down view of several ceramic plates and a spoon arranged on a light-colored, veined marble surface. The plates are in various shapes (round, oval, rectangular) and sizes, all featuring a light-colored, pressed leaf pattern on a dark, matte background. A single, polished gold spoon lies diagonally across the lower right portion of the image. The text 'SEIVA' is prominently displayed in the center-right, with 'COLLECTION' written below it in a smaller font.

COLLECTION

The image features a top-down view of various ceramic dishes arranged on a white marble surface. The dishes include several plates and bowls of different shapes and sizes, all in a muted, earthy brown color. Many of these pieces are decorated with delicate, light-colored leaf or fern patterns. A single, slender gold spoon lies diagonally across the lower right portion of the frame. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and naturalistic.
