Recommendations The Steelite Experience

Anthony Mossa Executive Chef • Calle Sol Latin Café & Cevicheria • Charlotte, NC • FS Food Group

"Calle Sol is a café that specializes in the perfect blend of Cuban & Latin cuisine. I used to say that our plates looked like doilies, but I have grown to love them. The more people talk about our food and their experience with Peruvian cuisine, the more it reminds them of their grandmother's cooking; and the plates help make that connection. The platform we are serving our food on looks like your grandmother's china, so it's nostalgic and creates an opportunity to remember your loved ones, and I think that's really cool."

Connie DeSousa & John Jackson Co-Executive Chefs • Charcut • Calgary, Alberta • Char Hospitality Group

"At Char Hospitality Group, it's all about evolving simple ingredients and finding the perfect plate to present them," shared Connie DeSousa. "Char Cut, our flagship restaurant in Calgary, celebrates Alberta's world-renowned beef and handcrafted pasta. When we opened, we wanted tableware that matched our commitment to quality—and that's where Steelite came in." "Our first introduction to Steelite was in a luxury hotel in America, where we were amazed that even the banquet plates looked like they belonged in a fine dining room. I remember dropping one, and it didn't break. That was the first time we experienced plates that combined style with durability," John recalled. "Now, everything we use is Steelite. It's not just about durability; it's about having a beautiful canvas for our chefs' creativity. Steelite is always moving forward, staying current with trends, and that's why they're such an essential part of our restaurants."

Brooke Tadena Executive Chef • “Hawai’i Convention Center • Honolulu, HI

“At the “Hawai’i Convention Center, we represent the islands through every dish we serve. Our cuisine is rooted in local flavors, using locally caught seafood, farmed produce, and drawing inspiration from the diverse cultures that shaped Hawaiian food. We serve everything from intimate dinners to large corporate retreats, and Steelite helps us deliver that experience with style. I’ve been using Steelite for over 12 years. No matter the concept or venue, Steelite always has the right option. Their products are durable, stylish, and versatile, perfect for everything from our evolving bar program featuring local spirits to our large-scale dining events. The Mogogo tables are also a standout. They’re easy to assemble, match our Hawaiian décor, and adapt to any space, ensuring a seamless buffet setup.”

Alexandre Trancher Executive Chef • La Mer in the Halekulani Hotel • Honolulu, HI

"I came to the U.S. 12 years ago to pursue my passion for fine dining, always striving to create the best experience for our guests," shared Alexandre Trancher, Executive Chef at La Mer. "I've been a chef for 20 years, but my love for this industry started much earlier. My uncle was in the business, and one summer, I worked in a hotel and experienced hospitality firsthand. That inspired me to attend culinary school and build a career that has taken me around the world, eventually leading me to La Mer in Hawaii. At La Mer, every detail matters, from the ingredients to the presentation. What I love about Steelite is how easy the collaboration is. When we first discussed our plateware, I saw a completely white plate. But then, they showed me how we could customize it, and together, we designed something unique to La Mer. This plate is exclusive, you won't find it anywhere else."

Recommendations The Steelite Experience

Ashley Grim Regional Executive Chef • Lainey Wilson's Bell Bottoms Up • Nashville, TN

"As a chef, I've always believed that the first thing a guest does is look at the dish. If the presentation excites them, they'll be even more excited to taste it," shared Chef Grim. "That's why it's so important that the plateware shines just as bright as the food, and Steelite makes it pop. When we opened Lainey Wilson's in the summer of 2024, we wanted something colorful and playful to match the restaurant's vibe. Steelite's plateware and glassware helped us capture that energy. The Steelite team was always quick to respond and made sure we had everything we needed. I've been a chef for over 10 years, but my love for cooking started young, baking Christmas cookies with my dad and battling my brother with crazy culinary concoctions. Now, whenever I'm looking at a new menu or opening a restaurant, I always go right to Steelite. They've been an incredible partner in helping us elevate the food scene in Nashville."

Andrew Rodriguez Executive Chef • Conrad Hotel • Nashville, TN

"At Conrad Nashville, we strive to create elevated dining experiences that reflect the city's energy and progression," shared Executive Chef Andrew Rodriguez. "My love for cooking started at a young age, watching my grandfather in the kitchen. He owned restaurants and poured so much care into every dish he made. With over 20 years in the industry, I've seen how demanding kitchens can be on tableware, and Steelite stands up to the challenge. We use it throughout our outlets, and the durability and style of Steelite's plating perfectly complement our aesthetic. The Sultan's Garden collection pairs beautifully with the classic feel of our lobby, making it ideal for plating our signature tea sandwiches and scones. Steelite doesn't just offer products, they offer guidance. Their team has helped us make the right choices for our culinary needs, and I'm happy to say many of our Steelite pieces have lasted for years. That's a true testament to their quality."

Mid-Century, Modern Design

The Original Craft

Steelite is proud to introduce four new shapes to the iconic Craft collection, bringing a stacking element that adds an exciting dimension to the tablescape. With various-sized stack plates available in colors Aqua, White, Raspberry, and Blue, Craft is inspired by generations of potters over hundreds of years. The range embodies the beauty of rich, lustrous glazes applied by hand, and celebrates chance effects and reactions which occur naturally in the kiln. The gem-like glazes married to simple forms and shapes produce a unique and individual appearance, giving Craft a rustic “joie de vivre.”

Bead defines a classic approach to dining, one which embodies best practice for back of house ease-of-use while delivering beautifully presented dishes to delighted diners. This range consists of two elements: Bead and Bead Accents, which can be mixed for a personalized collection. A classic linear design is carried across the main collection of Bead items, while the Bead Accent component offers an alternative decorative style. The Bead Accent decoration provides a contemporary element that adds texture and visual excitement.

The Essence of Hand-Thrown Stoneware

Gembrook consists of two colors, creamy white and deep gray, where each item is decorated with a sheer white, hand-applied glaze, allowing the beauty of the clay to show through. The bottom of each piece and small portions of the top are unglazed, to authenticate where the potter would hold each piece while glazing, resulting in double dips, drips, and exposed clay lending to its hand-thrown authenticity. Meanwhile, a handful of pieces flaunt a distinct indent, which mimics the thumb mark of the potter and creates a conversation piece for diners.
